Physical Education Class

Clean and appropriate leisure wear with appropriate shoes, complete change of under-wear, towel and soap. (Showers must be taken after each P.E. class or games session). Pupils must change back into their school uniform before going home. The appropriate school jersey or top must be worn. Black shorts and blue socks are required for rugby, soccer, Gaelic football and hurling. A navy skirt is required for hockey.

Scarves, jackets (other than school blazer), caps or hats may not be worn inside school buildings. Blazers (navy) are optional for pupils, except for Prefects, for whom they are required wear. 1st, 2nd, 3rd and TY students are expected to wear their school jacket to and from school.

All pupils should be particular about cleanliness and tidiness in their dress and general appearance, in accordance with school requirements. Girls may wear one pair of simple earrings, and boys are permitted to wear one small ear stud. Other piercings are forbidden. For out-of-school activities the school uniform must be worn, unless specified otherwise by the teacher.

ALL ITEMS OF CLOTHING MUST BE CLEARLY MARKED
