2. Characteristic Spirit and General Objectives of the School

Crescent College Comprehensive is a Catholic Comprehensive School under the trusteeship of the Society of Jesus and the Minister of Education & Skills. Located in Dooradoyle, on the outskirts of Limerick City, it continues a tradition, going back to 1565. Crescent Comprehensive blends the academic style of the traditional school and the practical disciplines of the vocational school, allowing students a broad subject range appropriate to their abilities. The comprehensive nature of the school guarantees equality of educational opportunity for both boys and girls regardless of social background. The school also facilitates the provision of Adult and Community education.

The family, as the prime educator, through its commitment to the ethos of the school, share the responsibility for the student's education.

Crescent College Comprehensive Mission Statement is grounded on the "Characteristics of Jesuit Education", and "Jesuit Schools: A Living Tradition in the 21st Century", the principles of which underline its unique Ignatian legacy and spiritual vision.

The mission of the Crescent College Comprehensive Community - Jesuits, staff, Board of Management, parents, students and past pupils - is to ensure that graduates of the school will be persons of competence, conscience and compassionate commitment, re-configuring the world in a way that is more compassionate, and therefore more human and God-like.

Crescent College Comprehensive SJ has a dedicated staff who are committed to academic excellence which is the cornerstone of Jesuit Ethos. Crescent aims to facilitate students' religious, moral, social, intellectual, emotional, physical and cultural development to the same degree of excellence.

The school tries to ensure that the students' participation in sport, cultural activities, social outreach programmes, and retreats is characterised by the same standard of excellence.

The aim is to promote the holistic development of each pupil, as an individual cherished by God. The purpose of Crescent is to support students in embracing and accepting their unique individuality, which in turn leads to action through the use of their personal gifts and talents for the good of others.

The expectation is that the students will develop an identity as a person-in-relationship expressed through compassionate outreach to others.

In opting to apply for and accept a place at Crescent College Comprehensive which is open to all, regardless of faith tradition, it is presumed that the religious and spiritual formation of your child is a priority.

- The Jesuit ethos is central to the life of the school and all students are expected to partake in religious ceremonies, student retreats, social outreach projects and Religious Education classes.
- As the school follows the NCCA Religious Education curriculum at Junior Cycle (which is approved by DES), students will be expected to fully participate in this subject. Senior students are also expected to engage with the Religious Education curriculum.
